5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;

USA vs. Nicholas Myles Garcia

Docket No.: CR 08-1234-JFW

The Court accepts Defendant's statement at the time of re-sentencing that the $200 special assessment payable to the United States has already been paid and therefor shall not be reimposed.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $327,980 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid to the Internal Revenue Service.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $200 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The Defendant shall receive credit for any monies paid to date since the original imposition of sentence.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons perform an immediate calculation of Mr. Garcia's release date.

The Court further recommends that the defendant remain at the MDC for the duration of his of incarceration.

Defendant informed of right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
